Update

I would like to thank all parents and children for my wonderful Christmas gifts and well wishes for my surgery. The surgery went well and I am recovering better than expected although slightly limited for a further 3 weeks; so classes are back to normal. Charlie and Jess will continue to help on Saturdays.

Exam results

Congratulations to you all for such fantastic results. The hard work paid off and I am very proud of you all. Certificates will arrive in the next few weeks.

Show

Show dates have been advertised since September to enable parents to book holidays accordingly. However, if children are unable to participate it is very important that you inform me as soon as possible as costumes, choreography and preparations have started. Your child will still benefit from lessons if unable to participate as grade work will continue parallel to show work in preparation for February 2013 ballet exams.

The show preparations are very exciting and we will be doing a musical revue using tunes from Shrek, Adams Family and Singing in the Rain to name a few! My daughter Jess has been taught choreography from the Adams Family Broadway musical at Italia Conti. She has started teaching it to some of the senior students which is a fabulous opportunity for them to experience professional work. Your support as parents with regular attendance is very much appreciated.

Good Luck!

This year is very important for Charlie Day who is auditioning for professional full time theatre arts education commencing September 2012. He has already been accepted into Italia Conti and will audition in March for more colleges, so we wish him the best of luck. Some of you may remember James Revell who is now working as a professional dancer and has just appeared in panto with Gareth Gates in Milton Keynes. Jess will be taking her ISTD teaching exams this year in ballet and tap. Laura Jones is also auditioning for dance colleges. We wish them all tons of luck.

It just leaves me to thank you all for your continued support and to say please come and chat or email if you have any questions regarding dance lessons.
